TWO CHORD SONG WORKBOOK FOR UKULELE BEGINNERS

(Keys of C, G and F).
TWO CHORD SONGS - HOW TO USE THIS BOOK.

People starting to play the uke will often want to start with the simplest of songs ie. those that do not require many chords. There are lots of well known songs that only require two chords and there is a list on the following page but the chords are written in three different keys C, G, and F, for just six of those songs.

Jambalaya,
Singing in the Rain,
Clementine,
Deep in the Heart of Texas,
How much is that Doggie in the Window,
Down in the Valley.

The aim is

1. To get the beginner changing chords effortlessly.
2. Extending their chord vocabulary by degrees.

The beginner

1. Could work their way through all the songs in C then move to the songs in G then finally to those in F

OR

2. They could play one song in C then try the same song in G and finally in F then move on to the next song.

AT THE END OF THIS BOOK THEY SHOULD KNOW THE FOLLOWING CHORDS

C      G7      G      D7      F      C7

With the addition of Bb the beginner should be able to tackle many three chords.

See The Three Chord Workbook.
All these songs have only TWO chords in them.

If played in the key of C you will need to know C and G7.
If played in the key of G you will need to know G and D7.
If played in the key of F you will need to know F and C7.

Once mastered in one key (suggest you start with C) then try and play them in G and then F. (You could photocopy the key of C versions and write in the new chords)

If you know the lyrics of any of these songs then write them out and then attach the chords.

The Golden Rule of two chord songs is – If the chord sounds wrong as you sing the tune then it is the other one.

CLEMENTINE

In a cavern, in a canyon,
Excavating for a mine,
Dwelt a miner, forty-niner
And his daughter Clementine.

Oh my darling, oh my darling
Oh my darling, Clementine
Thou art lost and gone forever,
Dreadful sorry, Clementine.

Light she was and like a fairy,
And her shoes were number nine,
Herring boxes without topses
Sandals were for Clementine

CHORUS
Drove the ducklings to the water
Every morning just at nine,
Hit her foot against a splinter
Fell into the foaming brine.

CHORUS
Ruby lips above the water,
Blowing bubbles soft and fine,
But alas, I was no swimmer,
So I lost my Clementine.

CHORUS
Then the miner, forty-niner
Soon began to peak and pine,
Thought he oughter jine he daughter,
Now he's with his Clementine.

CHORUS
In my dreams she still doth haunt me,
Robed in garments soaked in brine;
Though in life I used to hug her,
Now she's dead, I draw the line.

And I'm ready for love

Let the stormy clouds chase
Everyone from the place
Come on with the rain
   G7
I've a smile on my face

I'll walk down the lane
With a happy refrain
'Cause I'm singing
